

Both Wow and Yum, this tour has it all
Review of Brett's Outback Tasting Adventures
●●●●● Reviewed 11 February 2024

Although this is a long day, you are suddenly back at the hotel wishing it could have gone on a bit longer. Each of the stops is well thought out and provides a truly local experience. Weather it's a great breakfast, local liquors, fruit wine, gourmet lunch, cheeses, ice cream, local gin, chocolates, tropical fruit..... more wine and now my memory of all the other things eludes me. To top it all off you drive through some truly amazing country side and have informative and entertaining commentary throughout. Given all that you get and see this is a very well priced and memorable must do during your stay in Port Douglas
